My Own Story BY Caleb Powers

This book is a calm, dispassionate account, from the standpoint of the man most interested, of the conditions in Kentucky leading to the assassination of William Goebel, and of Powers' indictment and conviction on the charge of complicity in his murder.

It covers his youth in the mountains of Kentucky, the conventions of 1899, the election, the shooting of Goebel, the arrest, the three trials and the prison life.

For dramatic situations, human interest and political importance, the case of Caleb Powers is unequaled.

Many Illustrations from Photographs of Actual Scenes connected with the Tragedy.

CALLERY—In this city, on Sunday night, Mr. John J. Callery, aged 61 years.

The funeral services were conducted from the Church of the Good Shepherd, on Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock, Rev. Father Thos. S. Major officiating.

DANGEROUS RUNAWAY.

On Friday night last, when the streets were crowded with people and vehicles, the horse of Mr. H. Clay Wilson, attached to a buggy, became frightened, about 7:30 o'clock, and ran up Main street at a rapid rate. In front of the Opera House the horse collided with the horse attached to the Adams Express wagon, felling him to the ground, but this did not stop the runaway, who continued up East Main street towards its home. A gentleman saw him coming, just beyond the Arsenal, and yelled "Whoa" at him, when the well-trained animal stopped and was brought back town where he started from.

It was found that not a thing was hurt, and even the express horse that was knocked down was only jarred and not injured.

It was a wonderful escape from serious trouble.

The management of the Park will be strict as to sale or use of intoxicating drinks. No person of questionable character will be allowed on the grounds. Officers will be kept there to see that ladies and children are taken care of, and permitted to enjoy their outing. Refreshments can be had on the grounds after May 29.

PAPERS ALL SIGNED.

On Tuesday afternoon Capt. I. T. West and wife signed the necessary deeds conveying to Pennsylvania parties nearly 24,000 acres of land lying in Jackson and contiguous counties. The deeds were duly acknowledged before County Clerk N. B. Smith. We are glad to state that Capt. West made a neat little sum in the transaction. He still has some 4,000 acres of land remaining.

TAX RATE FINALLY FIXED BY CITY COUNCIL.

At the meeting of the City Council, on Monday night, the city tax rate for 1905, was finally fixed at $1.50 on the $100—the same as last year—distributed as follows: 85 cents for general purposes; 40 cents for school purposes; 25 cents for the sinking fund. This allows the Board of Education only 40 cents, in place of the 50 cents asked for.

When doctors fail try Burdock Blood Bitters. Cures dyspepsia, constipation; invigorates the whole system.

PLEASANT AFFAIR.

Judge J. H. Polsgrove entertained the fiscal court and county officers, on Monday, at a dinner at the Frankfort Hotel. The following gentlemen were present: Esq. J. D. Parker, Esq. J. T. Eppler, Esq. W. H. Graham, County Attorney J. T. Buford, Sheriff A. G. Jeffers, Deputy Sheriff Walter Jeffers, County Clerk N. B. Smith, Circuit Clerk Ben Marshall, Officer Z. T. Thomason.

It was a very pleasant affair.

GETS OPERA HOUSE LEASE.

The committee of the City Council, having the matter in charge, after considering all the bids for a lease of the Opera House for five years, awarded the same to Messrs. J. D. McNamara & Co., of this city, at $500 per annum. Mr. McNamara has striven to give our citizens clean and first-class shows heretofore and we are glad he obtained the lease.

DEATH OF MAJOR JOHN D. HARRIS.

The sad news came to this city, on Saturday, that Major John D. Harris, one of the wealthiest and most prominent farmers of Madison county, had died Friday afternoon, aged 76 years.

Major Harris had served four years in the State Senate from the Madison district, with honor and distinction. He was a prominent candidate for the office of Governor, at the time Gen. S. B. Buckner won the place in the Democratic State Convention of 1887. After his defeat for the latter place he retired permanently from political life, and gave his attention to the cultivation of his farm of 2,500 acres.

Some two years ago his wife was taken from him by death, and he seemed to lose his grasp upon earthly affairs to a large extent.

He leaves two daughters (Mrs. Sam'l H. Stone, of Louisville, and Mrs. C. M. Clay, Jr., of Bourbon county) to mourn his death. His only son, John D. Harris, Jr., died several years ago.

Major Harris was an upright, honest and intelligent man, who made friends, and held them, of all who knew him.

The funeral and interment took place at Richmond on Sunday last.

DANGEROUS ACCIDENT.

As the 9:35 L. & N. train was going up the grade above the tunnel, on Wednesday, a large rock that had been loosened by the heavy rains, slid down to the side of the track, and, before the train could be stopped, tore the steps off of a car. Had the train been going at full speed the accident would, in all probability, have been a very serious one.

APPOINTED.

Mr. J. R. Wathen has been appointed Distillery Supervisor of his district and also of that made vacant by the death of Col. W. J. Wilmore.

LOST HIS WAD.

While getting on a street car in Louisville, on Tuesday night, Mr. Lewis McQuown was "touched" for his pocket book containing $50 in money and other papers.

GOOD for OLD and YOUNG

August Flower keeps the children healthy and strong—
Full of vigor and frolic the whole day long. So when Mamma needs more they rush off in high glee.
And shout to the druggist: "Please give it to me!"
Inability to get up brisk and fresh in the morning, lack of appetite, pallor, maddly complexion and poor spirits—these all indicate a disordered stomach and bad digestion—in adults and children, too. They also indicate the urgent need of taking Green's August Flower regularly for a few days.
It's a reliable old remedy for all stomach troubles, never fails to cure indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and is a natural tonic for body and mind.
Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mr. Pat Hambrick has purchased a yearling steer from Mr. R. S. Sprake for $27 and a canner for $15.

We regret to learn that unfavorable news has been received from Mrs. Mattie Stone, at Greenville, Tenn. Her physician entertains but little hope of her recovery.

One of the heaviest rains of this rainy season visited us on Saturday morning. The streams were all out of their banks; much ground was badly washed; and a great deal of land will have to be replowed and replanted. While this is true of corn, etc., those who had tobacco land ready and plants large enough, succeeded in planting parts of their land. So the rains have not been an un-mixed evil.

LUSUS NATURE.

Mr. Colon M. Jones brought to our office, on Monday, a natural curiosity, in the shape of chicken with two full-sized birds and four well-developed legs. This chicken was two weeks old and was as lively as a cricket. When first hatched the second body was considerably larger than it now shows, and the little bird used all four feet to run about with. It looks as though the second body and legs will slough off, and leave only the natural parts of the chicken.

Mr. Jones also brought in a hen's egg, which was about an inch and a half long by about three-quarters of an inch in circumference.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart, and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

FOR BETTER SCHOOLS.

Invitations are out to attend an important conference in this city, on Wednesday, May 24, called by Gov. Beckham, State Superintendent of Instruction J. H. Finqua, President B. A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University; President J. J. Taylor, of Georgetown College, and other prominent men, to devise a method which will place the Kentucky school system on a better basis, and which will make it one of the most progressive of the Southern States.

The invitation states that what is desired is a nine months' school session for every child, well-trained teachers, official supervision of schools, introduction of industrial training, adequate school libraries, and the organization of Citizens' Educational Associations in every city and county in Kentucky to promote interest and progress in the schools.

This conference is the direct outgrowth of a preliminary meeting held by President Jenkins, Prof. Berry and others, while returning from Columbia, S. C., where they had attended the conference of Southern educators.

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE TO SHEEP BY DOGS.

The farmers of the southern end of the county are complaining of the ravages of a band of sheep-killing dogs. Already much loss has occurred. A determined war of extermination should be waged against all dogs who are not fit for taxation.

CALAMITIES—WHY GOD PERMITS THEM.

This is the title of a remarkable little tract which lies before you, and should be read by everybody.

People are thinking deeply and earnestly about the Martinique and St. Pierre and other recent calamities and need the assistance which his short treatise furnishes.

It is said that it was the earthquake of Lisbon that started Voltaire in the course of Infidelty.

Not understanding the relationship between such painful and destructive calamities and the divine plan and character Voltaire became an Atheist.

So now, many apparently are feeling their faith in God shaken; and these and all need the helpful suggestions of the tract referred to.

The Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Allegheny, Pa., is the publisher, and offers a sample copy free to any who will drop them a postal card request.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death), and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. I gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say, each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain,
—Miss George E. H. Hall, Jackson, Tenn.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The Court of Appeals, on Wednesday, in an opinion by Chief Justice Holson, affirmed the Nelson Circuit Court in the case of James Hardin v. Charles Hardin. The parties are descendants of Geo. Hardin, a slave of Ben Hardin, the noted Bardstown lawyer, and the question came up as to the legitimacy of appellee, born before the act of 1860 legalizing slave marriages. The court holds as appellee was born before the passage of the act referred to, and was the child of a customary marriage between negroes, he must be regarded as legitimate, and is, therefore, entitled to his share of the estate. The fact that he was not recognized by other members of the family can not affect his rights. His rights come through the law and facts.

This is a very important decision to a large number of colored people in this section.

THANKS.

We are under obligations to our young friend, Mr. Russell S. Penn, for an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of Georgetown College, which will occur June 4-7.

DEATH OF COL. W. J. WILMORE.

On Saturday last, Col. W. J. Wilmore, of Nicholasville, died in St. Louis, Mo., en route to Colorado Springs, Colo., from the effects of two hemorrhages while on a sleeping car, aged 61.

Col. Wilmore was one of the finest revenue lawyers in the State of Kentucky. We had held the positions of Storekeeper, Gauger, Deputy Collector and Revenue Agent.

After he left the revenue service he was employed by Capt. E. J. Curley as Superintendent of his two fine distilleries at Camp Nelson, Ky. While so employed he was appointed Revenue Agent for Kentucky and Tennessee, during the administration of President Harrison.

So valuable a man was he to Capt. Curley that he never rested until he had persuaded him to resign the service, after one year, and to return to Camp Nelson, at a salary double that which he received as Revenue Agent. He continued with Capt. Curley until the organization of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co., which company bought out Capt. Curley.

Col. Wilmore was then given the position of Supervisor of Distilleries for this section of the State, by that company, having twenty-five distilleries under his supervision.

He was a faithful, conscientious and upright gentleman and officer in any position to which he was called.

His health had been failing for several months and he was urged by the officials of his company to take a rest and trip for his health upon full pay. He, however, continued at his office, and about his duties until Saturday, May 6, when he finally yielded and made preparation to leave for Colorado. His wife accompanied him and was with him at the last.

We have known Col. Wilmore for more than thirty years and have been intimately associated with him for a large part of that time. While a reserved and quiet man with strangers, to those whom he once selected as friends, he was as true as steel, and as genial and warm-hearted a man as we ever knew.

He was prominently engaged in politics, and was firm and decided in his views. He was Republican Central Committeeman for the Eighth District at the time of his death.

He was a wise counsellor and safe in all his advice. He was thoughtful and conservative and when once he had made up his mind as to the proper course to pursue he followed it with unswerving fidelity.

By prudence and economy he had accumulated quite a handsome competence, which he was at all times ready to lavish upon his devoted wife and daughter.

In his death we feel a personal bereavement.

He leaves his wife, one daughter and one sister, beside a host of warmly attached friends to mourn his untimely end.

The funeral and burial took place at Nicholasville on Sunday last.

Farewell! Old friend! We hope to meet again, "beyond the shadow and the shining."

RIGHT THUMB CUT OFF.

Curtis Jett, who is now under life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Jas. B. Muncum, had his right thumb cut off, on Wednesday, by the machinery in the reed room of the Frankfort Chair Co. It is whispered that he became incensed at something which occurred that day and cut off his thumb on purpose.

OPENING OF COVE SPRING PARK.

Cove Spring Park theatre will be opened May 28. The Frankfort and Versailles Traction Co. have built and equipped a new summer theatre that will seat 1,000 people. Mr. Matt Kusell will have charge of the theatre, and will be able to change his programme three times each week, and put on new people every week. He will have an orchestra on the grounds every evening and concerts will be given before the show begins, each evening and Sunday afternoons. Four hundred seats will be free to the patrons of the cars, and reserved seats can be secured at 10 cents each. The F. and V. Traction Co. have purchased three new cars, and will have in service eight (8) double motor cars. They will give a ten minutes service to the Park, and will be able to bring away the crowds from the Park without any delay. They have put new ties under the entire line to the Park, and the track and overhead line will be put in first class order, so as to insure good service to and from the Park. The company has arranged to double their power station, and when through with the improvements contemplated Frankfort will have an up-to-date car line. Arrangements can be made to secure the Park for picnics, by addressing Mr. John T. Buckley, the Secretary of the Company; no charge will be made for the use of the grounds, by complying with the rules of the company. No intoxicating drinks will be sold or allowed on the grounds. The base ball grounds will be put in order as soon as the weather will permit. The new building can be secured for public speaking, or for the use of lodge meetings. When the company completes its arrangements at the Park it will be a nice resort for our citizens, and Frankfort people are not slow to enjoy a good thing.

Mr. Chas. N. Wiard has purchased from Mr. S. C. Cryer his home and ten acres of ground on the Louisville pike, two miles from the city—part of the old Walker Stephens place—and will remove there to reside the first of the year.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Frankfort Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with aching pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Road of a remedy for kidneys only the helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Mildred S. Betts, wife of C. M. Betts, carpenter, of 519 Short Street, says: "My kidneys troubled me for some years off and on. I tried different remedies, but without obtaining any permanent relief. The pain in my back was often very severe, especially at night before retiring and in the morning when I would first get up. There was also a kidney weakness, distressing at all times. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, and noticed that the symptoms they cured were just like mine. Willing to try almost anything to get relief, I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box. I took them as directed and soon noticed the difference in my condition. The sharp pains and the aching disappeared, and the other complaints were banished. Doan's Kidney Pills act like magic and the relief given is lasting."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, at the rich patient, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if it drags consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

STRICTLY GENUINE.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Back, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office to-day, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

DEATH OF MR. WM. T. HALL.

It is with a sad heart that we chronicle the death of our life long friend, Mr. Wm. T. Hall, of Woodford county, who passed away at his home on Thursday night, aged 77 years and 8 months.

Mr. Hall was the uncle of Mrs. John E. Miles, of this city, Mrs. R. S. Byrne and Mrs. Susie Fogg, of Lexington.

He was a quiet, retiring gentleman of the old school, devoted to his friends and family. Firm and unyielding in his opinions, yet respectful and considerate of others.

Of a shy and reserved disposition Mr. Hall had never married, but there never lived a man who respected true womanhood more than he.

He was not a member of any church, but was a firm believer in the truths of Christianity. He died, as he had lived, quietly and gently.

We can never forget the many acts of kindness and friendship done to us as we journeyed along life's rough way.

We tender to the bereft our sincerest sympathy.

The announcement for the funeral had not been made at the hour we write.

Takes the burn out; heals the wound; cures the pain. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, the household remedy.

THE ROUNDABOUT DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, LITERATURE, EDUCATION.

Unity and Action.

To form a just conception of one's individuality it is frequently very necessary to study one's surroundings, and in the contemplation of the actualities of every day life one may, to some extent, realize the significance of our creation, and understand our relation to the rest of mankind.

Man is a contemplative creature, but in youth the mind is absorbed with an infinite variety of pleasures and incidents of the hour, and, unassisted, will not and cannot comprehend the great, essential uses, and purposes, and demands, that the future will surely bring! Life is so short that the actors of to-day seem to pass away to-morrow, while the hands and the brains that control and move the machinery of our social and governmental system now, will soon be stilled, and others, reared and skilled in the schools of to-day, will take their places, and thus on and on, as one wave succeeds another from generation to generation, the ever shifting, changing panorama of history moves with the certainty and regularity of time's constant course. So through all the ages it has been the practice and purpose of civilized nations to educate and prepare the youth of the day for the duties and honors that await them in the future to-morrow.

In our own time we see practical illustrations of this truth on every hand. The education of the masses is the recognized doctrine of the hour! Upon this subject all parties agree, and universal education has re-united the whole world in one band of common thought. An education from a business and social standpoint—prepares the way for the active, progressive student—after the knowledge which the world abounds. You may educate the head and make degenerates—but, there is another cultivation which God demands, the cultivation of the heart—which makes gentlemen! One can not enter into a diagnosis of the operations and purposes of this organ of the human system, but it is supposed to be the seat of the affections from whence spring all the noble feelings and higher attributes of one's nature. The passions have been beautifully portrayed by many writers, but it is my purpose only to inculcate one lesson: That the pure and upright in heart enjoy a continual blessing, and that the world, cold and cynical as it may be; soiled and selfish as it often seems; skeptical and vain-glorious as is the fashion—will always stop to do honor to the beautiful and the good. While the one who feels the hungry, kneeling at the altar of truth and virtue, will be most honored and trusted by all men!

In view of the fact that a convention of educators is to meet in general discussion regarding the wants, needs, and proclivities (tending to a higher ideal and more congenial equipment for teachers), this convention to be called in Frankfurt, some time in June, next—it behooves us in such a symposium, to regulate the unity of action formulating such a treaty, and to be prepared to contribute, from personal experience, the data necessary for such a thesis.

I am not an advocate of woman suffrage, but it has always appeared to me to be a wise and safe plan not only to place the child under the watchful care of a female teacher, but under the supervision of women trustees, and these trustees under a woman superintendent.

How much the success of country schools depend upon the aid and encouragement of trustees, parents, and patrons! This is apparent to the most casual of observers! It is not enough to have provided commodious and beautiful buildings, to have employed able and accomplished instructors, but more is needed; the presence of the trustees, as well as the manifestation of a lively and practical interest in the progress of the schools, and by every means possible to uphold the authority of the teachers.

The success or failure of the public school system of education depends largely and in a great measure upon the supervision and vigilance of the board of trustees. These are responsible, under oath, for the performance of all the duties placed upon them by law and the welfare and condition of schools are regulated by the character of such trustees.

A general charge and supervision of schools includes the power to make all reasonable rules and regulations for their discipline, government, and management. This power, as given by law, varies somewhat in different States. For example, in Alabama and Arkansas the superintendent of State education exercises a general supervision over all educational interests of the State. In California the State Board of Education is given the power to adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, and the trustees of school districts and city boards of education are allowed to prescribe and enforce rules not inconsistent with law, or with those prescribed by the State Board of Education for the government of schools. In Colorado and Connecticut this power is delegated to the State Board of Education, but district directors and boards of school visitors "shall prescribe rules for the management and discipline of the public schools." In Delaware: "The school committee of each district may make regulations for the government of the schools." In Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Vermont, and Wisconsin the general supervision of all the free public schools is given to the State superintendent with power to adopt such rules, regulations, forms, and instructions as shall be legally prescribed, to be transmitted to minor officers and teachers. In Indiana and Kansas, the county superintendent shall have the general supervision of the schools. In other States these powers are delegated to the control of State boards of education to "make all needful rules and regulations for the government of public schools."

Under such a code a body of teachers can be well organized whose competency is certain, and who will work with ambition because they feel the stimulus of a very high standard, and a wiser oversight.

A just and generous management, on the part of co-agitators, will send a current of renewed vitality through every part of the educational machinery. A new bond of concentrated activity is formed superseding the old ties of defective and haphazard organization, a unity of action containing life and energy, with a standard of manners and morals commensurate with excellence. The old regime will have been abandoned, and absenteeism and irregularity ended at once and forever. The trustee fearing neither the anathemas of outraged parents can face again the responsibilities of authority, act accordingly, and with courage of conviction proclaim to an admiring public that: "Honor and fame from no condition rise. Act well your part—there all the honor lies."

Thus we have co-ordination, correlation, concentration, or properly speaking, unification; and it is to be hoped that in the curriculum of thought, to be brought to light in the convening of Kentucky educators, in the near future, a steady policy looking to the general requisites of a country school, and the supplying of all needful administration shall be faithfully and justly presented.
